FREQUENTLY ASKED Questions

DO I NEED RESERVATIONS?

Wine Flights and Champion Tastings: Walk-ins welcome, first-come, first-served.

Luxe Tastings and Winery Tours: Reservations highly recommended.

A Taste of Childress Experience: Advanced Reservations Required.

Bistro: Reservations are highly recommended, especially Friday–Sunday.

Walk-ins are welcome but not guaranteed.

WHERE DO I CHECK IN FOR MY TASTING OR TOUR?

Champion Tastings: Gift Shop (Main Building)

Luxe Tastings: Victory Lounge (Main Building)

A Taste of Childress Experience: Victory Lounge (Main Building)

Tours: Winery Foyer (Main Building)

WHAT IS YOUR MAXIMUM PARTY SIZE?

Our maximum party sizes vary by experience:

The Bistro: Up to 14 guests per reservation. Groups larger than 14 may be accommodated through our Banquet & Private Events Department as a private, catered lunch or dinner in one of our event spaces. These reservations are managed separately from standard Bistro bookings and require advance arrangements and full prepayment to the Private Events Department at least two weeks in advance.

Luxe Wine Tastings: Maximum 8 guests per seating in the Victory Lounge. Larger groups should contact our Concierge Desk for coordination and availability.

Champion Wine Tastings: There is no set maximum. This experience is first-come, first-served and designed for flexible walk-in service.

A Taste of Childress Tasting & Tapas Experience: Maximum 18 guests per seating (this is the largest group that can be accommodated at one time).

HOW LONG ARE RESERVATIONS HELD?

We hold reservations for up to 15 minutes past your scheduled time for tastings and Bistro reservations. After that, your reservation may be released.

For winery tours, guests arriving more than 10 minutes late will forfeit their reservation.

Please note: All guests in your party must be present before being seated.

IS THERE A TIME LIMIT ON DINING?

Yes, standard reservation times are 2 hours, which is shared when large parties are seated.

CAN I BRING OUTSIDE FOOD OR DÉCOR?

Outside food is not permitted anywhere on property. However, if you're celebrating a special occasion and would like to bring your own dessert to enjoy in The Bistro, we do allow that with a $3 outside dessert fee per person in your party.

Outside décor is not permitted inside The Bistro or the Main Building. Guests celebrating on the Back Lawn may bring minimal décor such as balloons, small table decorations, and gifts — all within tasteful and manageable limits.

ARE CHILDREN ALLOWED?

Children are welcome in the Tasting Room and Bistro but not permitted in the Victory Lounge, Barrel Cave or Winery Tours.

ARE PETS ALLOWED?

Only trained service animals are permitted on property in accordance with ADA guidelines. Emotional support animals, therapy animals, and pets — including small dogs, even if carried or in strollers or bags — are not permitted.

WHEN IS LAST CALL FOR WINE SERVICE?

Last call for wine service in the Main Building is at 4:30 PM, and the winery closes at 5:00 PM.

WHAT FORMS OF ID DO YOU ACCEPT?

We accept valid, government-issued photo IDs such as a driver's license, passport, or military ID. Digital, temporary, or photo copies of IDs are not accepted.

Guests must be 21+ to taste and 18+ to enter the Victory Lounge.

IS THERE A DRESS CODE? WHAT SHOULD I WEAR?

There isn't a formal dress code. We simply ask that guests dress in a tasteful and presentable manner. You'll see visitors dressed in everything from casual sundresses and polos to jeans and dress shirts — come as you're comfortable and ready to enjoy your visit.
